
5th annual breast cancer forum: What causes breast cancer? What cures it?

Friday 14 September 2018

Date Day

Royal Society of Medicine
1 Wimpole Street
LONDON

Venue W1G 0AE

Organised by RSM Professionals , Pink Ribbon

Accreditation 6 CPD Points

Topics Covered

- The latest theories of genetic causes of breast cancer, both from UK and international speakers.
- The pathology of breast cancer is described in different nations, comparing best practices in America and Europe systems in Lower Middle-Income Countries (LMIC), in Africa and Asia.
- Key developments in some neglected areas of breast cancer pharmacology, including triple negative, brain metastases and male breast cancer.
- New research linking breast cancer and pregnancy outcomes.
- Political approaches to beating breast cancer.

Confirmed Speakers

- Dr Kath Thompson, Breast Cancer Veteran, pharmaceutical physician and author of From Both Ends of the Stethoscope
- Dr Virginia Kaklamani, Professor of Medicine, University of Texas Health Science Centre, San Antonio
- Professor Gareth Evans, Professor in Medical Genetics and Cancer Epidemiology, Manchester University
- Professor Mitch Dowsett, Professor of Biochemical Endocrinology, The Royal Marsden NHS Foundation Trust
- Professor Chris Twelves, Professor of Clinical Cancer Pharmacology and Oncology, Leeds Institute of Cancer Studies and Pathology, University of Leeds
- Miss Neha Tabassum, PhD Research Scholar, Imperial College London
- Miss Tasha Gandamihardja, Consultant Oncoplastic Breast Surgeon, Chelmsford Hospital
- Dr Rachael Liebmann \(Chair\), Vice President for Communications, The Royal College of Pathologists
- Dr Hania Morsi Fadl OBE, Founder and Chief Executive, Khartoum Breast Cancer Centre (Sudan)
- Prof. Nada Alwan, Director, National Cancer Research Centre, University of Baghdad (Iraq)
- Dr Abeer Shabaan, Consultant Pathologist, Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham (UK & Egypt)
- Dr Shahin Sayed, Consultant Histopathologist, Aga Khan University Hospital Nairobi (Kenya)
- Dr Jo Marsden, Consultant Breast Surgeon, Kings College Hospital NHS Foundation Trust, London